SIP THE SILENCE

Lord, let's meet in some quiet place.
By a running brook, a grove of space.
When you and I might simple be in the shady silence of a sycamore tree
Away from the noise that fills my mind
Your prayerful presence I will find.

Or high upon some mountain top Where my wounded heart wilt have to stop
Its frantic race to be the best
And just be still and rest beat.

Let's meet this summer at the shore Where wild waves come crashing to the door
Of that gentle space within Where you and I are one again.
