HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

Sun 14th July 2013 Vol. 30 No 28

LOOKING OUT FOR THE BROKEN

The Road from Jerusalem to Jericho pass your doorstep and mine. We walk down it every day.

*'Jesus, let me tell you about yesterday. I saw my sister's wounds and walked on.
I looked upon my brothers pain and pretended that it was not that bad. I heard a child crying and told myself to mind my own business.*

I bumped into a woman starved of love and refused to help. I beheld the emptiness in an old man's eyes and rushed about my work.

*I became aware of my inner screams and then got busier
than before.*

I watched my crumbling willpower fail and made no effort to try.

That was yesterday. Today is new.' Fr E. Kelly

.....

Joke:

If a social worker had been one of those to discover the man lying by the side of the road in today's Gospel he might have said 'Whoever did this needs a lot of help!'
