A HARVEST PRAYER

On the day of the harvest the straw is set aside, the chaff is blown away by the wind, and the weeds are consigned to the flames.

But the wheat like sacks of gold, is gathered into the barn.

*Lord, On the day of death,
the harvest of my life will
be poured out before you,
wheat, chaff, and weeds
together.*

*Let your wise hand sift through it; then keep what is worth keeping, and with the breath of your kindness
blow the rest away.*

THE MUSTARD SEED REVOLUTION

The mustard seed parable is often explained away by stating how God takes a tiny seed and makes a big tree out of it. There is, as usual a lot more going on here. Matthew strategically places the mustard seed parable in the middle of a story about gardening. Jesus surprises his listeners by telling them not to cut the weeds out of the wheat. The mustard seed's growth could also be compared to wild weeds that grow through cracks in footpaths or a vine that vigorously takes over an area. There is an ancient text which forbade planting mustard seeds in Palestinian gardens because the shrub takes over, like how yeast works its way through dough! It is wild, out of control and attracts unwanted birds. Author and activist, Shane Claiborne, compares it to kudzu, a wild vine that could blanket entire mountain areas, smother trees, even crack cement buildings.

People in Jesus's time may have preferred the image of the lofty 'cedars of Lebanon' to explain God's Kingdom where the nations could build nests like the eagles do. Now that image may have gotten a few cheers from the crowd! Mustard plants however, only stand a few feet tall. Jesus is turning the ideals of power and triumph on their head again. The image we have here is of the unwanted, detestable birds who find a home in this little shrub which cannot be curtailed. It will grow even where it is not wanted.

VOLUNTEERS

Three weeks ago members of our Pastoral Council together with those involved in various ministries spoke at Masses telling people here what is happening and requesting volunteers to help in various ways. Fr. Joe and Fr Paddy are grateful not just to those who spoke but also to the 42 people who said yes when asked to help in our great parish. It is great because you the people have made it great. Remember it is never too late to volunteer.
