Bingo song

Now you've heard of Father Daly
in Derry he does dwell

He started up a Bingo Club and I hear it's going well

And if you visit friends in Creggan And they're not in when you call

You can bet your boots they're playing Bingo in St. Columb's
Hall

Because they're Bingo crazy,
they're Bingo mad

And the Bingo it has robbed them of the wee bit of sense they had

You can be a social outcast or even risk a snub

If you don't become a member of
St. Columb's Bingo Club

(Sung to the tune of an old Andy Stewart song
'Football Crazy')

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

Sun 21ST Aug 2016 Vol.33 No 33

BISHOP DALY

I will be eternally grateful to him for the trust he placed in me when in 1990 I was asked to serve the good People of God here in Holy family parish. I remember my excitement, walking on air as I left his office. At the end of his second book bishop Daly wrote: I am keenly aware of my own multitude of weakness and inadequacies, my impatience and impetuosity. I give thanks to God for his forgiveness, goodness and mercy to me over the past fifty years. God has been generous. I ask forgiveness of those whom I have hurt. I thank my many friends who have been so supportive. Everyone has a story to tell. This was mine.

Fr Paddy .

A word from Bishop Donal.

Last week, our beloved retired bishop, Edward Daly, returned to God. It has been a time to remember Bishop Daly's faithful service of God and the people of this diocese. Over the days many people shared their experiences of meeting with Bishop Edward and the kindness and compassion he showed, in actions both great and small.

It was my privilege to lead the Funeral Mass and burial rites. I thank you, the people of this diocese, for your overwhelming response to the death of Bishop Edward, for attending his wake, the liturgies which were celebrated and his funeral.

In prayer, we now entrust Bishop Edward's soul to our Eternal Father, that he may be welcomed into his Heavenly Kingdom. May he rest in peace.

+Donal McKeown
