EASTER JOY!

The story did not stop with Good Friday and the cross.

If it did we would be the most helpless and hopeless of lonely people bereft of a reason to live and a reason to die. While the cross had been an image of violence now it is the key to peace.

An image of suffering, now the key to healing.

An image of death now, the key to life.

No! The story ends in sunshine and brilliant splendour -in the new life of an Easter morning and the empty shell of a tomb; it concludes in the ecstasy of hopes realized and dreams come true, in the joy of an ALLELUIA sung in praise from the depths of our hearts. The stone has been rolled back. Christ has risen and we dare to celebrate the mystery of his love.

The Priests of the Parish wish you all a Happy Easter
